Diwali, which is this weekend, is one of my favorite Indian holidays that celebrates the festival of lights. Not only is it celebrated by families coming together and having fun, but also it is celebrated by many groups such as Hindus, Sikhs and Buddhists to remember all the events that have happened throughout the year.

3 Reasons Why I Love Diwali

Diwali has been celebrated since ancient times, originating as a harvest festival. Diwali is loosely translated from Sanskrit as “a row of lights.”. It is one of the most joyous celebrations in Mauritius and is actually a five-day celebration, although only one day is considered a public holiday.
