Samsung LN-S4696D 46" LCD TV - Full HD Specs - CNET

Samsung and Sony actually use the same LCD panels. The TV itself looks great with a "piano black" frame and hidden speakers. The swivel stand is also a great feature, especially when trying to hook up all of the connections. The 46" Sharp has banding problems, so I went with the Samsung over the sony beacuse of the lower price point.
