In third grade, you will likely not need to meet with all students in a guided reading group. My groups consist of students who are reading exactly at grade level or below. I do not place students who are reading above grade level in a guided reading group. I try to meet with them once every week or so to check in with their reading selections.

Guided Reading Made Simple - Third Grade Doodles

At the 3rd grade level, we highly suggest that encourage students to read aloud as often as possible. This forces them to slow down and pace how they read passages. This leads to long self-processing time which long term will improve their comprehension of what they read. In order to do this successfully you will need to reassure students that your room is a safe space to read aloud.
